Stetson University College of Law COMMENCEMENT

Saturday, May 17, 2014

The Plaza Mayor Courtyard Gulfport, Florida

Anticipated Honors Honors designations for Spring/Summer 2014 J.D. candidates are based on grades earned through a candidate's next-to-last semester. Final graduation honors for all degrees will be determined by the Registrar after final grades have been posted. Final graduation honors will appear on the diploma and official transcript. Final Degree Evaluation The listing of degrees, and academic honors for Spring/Summer 2014 candidates in this program is preliminary and subject to final degree requirement evaluation. A candidate earns a degree after the Registrar determines that the candidate has satisfactorily completed all graduation requirements and posted final grades on the official record. The diploma of Stetson University College of Law, signed and sealed by its appropriate officers, is the official public document evidencing that a degree has been awarded.

The Mission of Stetson University College of Law

Stetson University College of Law provides a dynamic and supportive scholarly community in which students learn, in and outside the classroom and by example, to become outstanding lawyers and leaders who serve the profession and society.

About Stetson University College of Law

Pounded in 1900, Stetson University College of Law is Florida's first law school. With its main law campus in Gulfport and a satellite campus in Tampa, Stetson is fully accredited by the American Bar Association and has been a member of the Association of American Law Schools since 1931.

Stetson Law is ranked first in the nation for trial advocacy, sixth in legal writing and is listed among the top 100 law schools in the country. In addition to the juris doctor law degree, Stetson offers certificates of concentration in advocacy, elder law, environmental law, international law and social justice, dual-degree programs for the J.D./M.B.A., J.D./M.P.H., J.D./Grado en Derecho and J.D./M.I.E.L., and LL.M. degrees in advocacy, elder law and international law.

Stetson is home to the Centers for Excellence in Advocacy, Elder Law, Higher Education Law and Policy, and International Law, and Institutes for the Advancement of Legal Communication, Biodiversity Law, Caribbean Law, and Veterans Law.

Stetson offers international programs in seven countries, including a semester program in London, England.

An international leader in advocacy education, Stetson has a long-standing record of championships at the world, national, regional and state levels of interscholastic competition. Students can further expand their practical experience by participating in clinical or internship opportunities.

Stetson University's DeLand campus is home to the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business Administration, and School of Music. The Stetson University Center at Celebration offers graduate and professional development programs.

The Symbols of Commencement

Academic Regalia: Academic disciplines are noted by color; law is represented as purple. The doctoral gown has bell sleeves with velvet chevrons on the sleeves and velvet on the panels. The hood is bound and edged with purple velvet and lined with green, the official color of Stetson University as the institution conferring the degree. The tam combines the symbolism of the book and that of a privileged guild. Students graduating with anticipated honors wear a gold tassel on the cap, and others wear a purple tassel denoting the discipline of law.

Students wearing purple cords are LL.M. graduates. Gold cords are worn by students graduating with anticipated honors. Student leaders and named award winners wear green cords. Students wearing blue cords have earned the William F. Blews Pro Bono Service Award.

The Mace: The Stetson University Mace, used during all commencement ceremonies, is a ceremonial staff used as a symbol of the right to confer degrees. The Stetson mace, designed by Episcopalian Canon Edward Nason West of the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, New York, was presented to President J. Ollie Edmunds in 1956.

The Medallion: The President's Medallion, worn at official academic occasions, was first used for the inauguration of President John E. Johns in 1969. The silver medallion includes the University Seal embraced by a wreath of laurel. The circular seal, adopted between 1889 and 1891, bears the motto Pro Deo et Veritate ("For God and Truth") and the Light of Truth resting on the Book of Wisdom.

Honorary Degree Citation

ADAM LIPTAK, you are a nationally recognized legal correspondent and media lawyer.

You are the Supreme Court correspondent for the New York Times, where you have served as a journalist since 2002. Your series on how the United States legal system differs from those of other developed nations, "American Exception," was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in explanatory reporting. You have examined the rise in life sentences in the United States and the impact of campaign contributions on Ohio Supreme Court justices' voting records.

You earned bachelor's and law degrees from Yale University, and you worked in the New York Times Company's legal department as a clerk during law school. You spent four years as a litigation associate with the New York City law firm of Cahill Gordon & Reindel, specializing in First Amendment issues. You returned to the Times' legal department, where you litigated media and commercial cases and provided counsel to the company's newspapers, television stations and other media properties.

You have distinguished yourself as a writer in the popular press and the legal academy, and you have taught media law at the Columbia University School of Journalism, UCLA School of Law, and Yale Law School.

In light of your many accomplishments, and under the authority vested in me by Stetson University's Board of Trustees, I proudly present you with the Honorary Doctor of Laws degree.
